DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The first floor of this mid-block building of painted brick is a shop front. Three stories high, with 2 bays on the upper floors, it shares a sally port with 855 N. Howard Street. (to the right).

The dentiled shop cornice, with one scrolled bracket to the right over hangs a shop window with 2 large horizontal panels and a row of 3 transoms on the front, and a single pane and transom on its angled side wall which forms one side of the entrance recess on the left. There is a wood door with a large glass panel and transom within the recess.

The second floor windows are taller than those on the 3rd floor, and set immediately above the shop cornice. All the upper floor windows are 6-over-6 and have elaborate window caps which repeat the building's cornice in miniature. The 3rd floor windows also have stone sills. The cornice has 2 deeply scrolled brackets and a row of dentils.
